

Psychoanalytic Theory

Freud, Part I

John M. Jemerin. M.D.
September 9-October 28, 2016

Week 1: Discovery of psychoanalysis—Studies in Hysteria

1. Freud, S., Five Lectures on Psycho-Analysis, lectures I and II, SE v.XI: 9-28 (1910)
2. Freud, S., “Frau Emmy von N.” in: Freud, S. and Breuer, J., Studies in Hysteria, SE v.II: 48-64 (1893-1895)

Week 2: Origins of psychoanalytic technique
Building blocks of Theory—Parapraxes, part 1

1. Miller, P., “How Emmy silenced Freud into analytic listening,” in: On Freud’s “On Beginning the Treatment”, Eds. Seulin, C. and Saragnano, G.; Karnac, London; 103-119 (2012)
2. Freud, S., Introductory Lectures on Psychoanalysis, Lecture II, SE v. XV: 25-39 (1916)

Week 3: Building blocks of theory--Parapraxes, part 2

Freud, S., Introductory Lectures on Psychoanalysis, Lectures III and IV, SE v. XV: 40-79 (1916)

Week 4: Building blocks of theory: Dreams, part 1

Freud, S., On Dreams, Sections I-V, SE v.V: 658-686 (1901)

Week 5: Building blocks of theory: Dreams, part 2

Freud, S., On Dreams, Sections VI-XIII, SE v.V: 633-658 (1901)

Week 6: Freud the clinician—the emergence of clinical theory

Freud, S., Notes upon a case of obsessional neurosis. I.
“Extracts from the case history” part 1, SE v. X: 155-195 (1909)

Week 7: Freud the clinician—the emergence of clinical theory,
continued

1. Freud, S. “Notes upon a case of obsessional neurosis. I.
“Extracts from the case history” part 2, SE v. X: 195-219 (1909)
2. Lear, J. (2002). Jumping from the Couch. Int. J. Psycho-Anal., 83:583-595

Week 8: Foundations of clinical technique—Freud’s papers on technique

1. Freud, S. “Remembering, repeating, and working through (Further recommendations of the technique of psycho-analysis
II). SE XII: 145-156 (1914)
2. Friedman, L. “The Discrete and the continuous in Freud’s ‘Remembering, repeating and working through’ ” J. Amer.
Psycho-Anal. Assoc., 62:11-34 (2014)